OUR ACKNOWLEDGMENT

With gratitude, we acknowledge the Traditional Custodians of this land and honour their enduring connection to Country. We pay our respects to Elders past and present, and to all First Nations people among us.

A SAFE AND CARING PARISH

We strive to make our parish a place where everyone feels safe, valued, and respected. Safeguarding is a shared responsibility, and we thank our community for helping us uphold this commitment.

If a word from Scripture settles in your heart or invites you to pause, we welcome you to share that grace. Your reflection becomes a gift that strengthens and uplifts our community. To offer a contribution for this space, please contact the Parish Office.

VOICE FROM THE PEWS

Where Scripture meets real life

Lea Joris

The readings for the Fifth Sunday of Easter draw us into a vision of unity, identity, and trust in God amidst challenge. In Acts, we see the early Church facing internal conflict—differences in culture and need causing tension. Yet rather than divide, the apostles respond with wisdom and inclusivity, ensuring no one is overlooked. It is a powerful reminder that even in struggle, the Spirit leads the Church toward unity.

This speaks deeply into our world today. We are surrounded by conflict—wars between nations, and quieter but no less real battles within our own communities and hearts. Social media, too, can amplify division, comparison, and misunderstanding, often leaving people feeling isolated rather than connected.

Yet, at a dance class for individuals living with a disability, that I have attended for over 30 years, I encounter a different reality. There, people are welcomed and valued as they are—regardless of ability, background, or even their fashion choices. There is a natural acceptance, a joyful inclusivity that mirrors the response of the apostles: recognising dignity in every person and ensuring all belong.

In the second reading, we are reminded that we are "living stones," built into something greater, with Jesus Christ as the cornerstone. And in the Gospel, Jesus reassures us: "Do not let your hearts be troubled." He is the way, the truth, and the life—the foundation on which all unity and peace rest.

As Augustine once wrote, "In essentials, unity; in non-essentials, liberty; in all things, charity." This wisdom continues to guide us today.

The Church will remain strong and life-giving when it is grounded in this truth. Even amid conflict and noise, we are called to be people who trust, include, and build—reflecting Christ's love in a world that longs for it.

AUGUSTINIAN VOCATION PRAYER

Let us pray to the Lord of the harvest who calls men and women to serve Him in love.

That they may know their vocation and live it.

All glory and praise are yours, God of truth and light of our hearts, for you guide your people in the ways of holiness.

Help those who follow in the footsteps of Augustine to seek you through mutual love and worship and to be servants of your Church as examples that others may follow.

Enlighten men and women to see the beauty of common life in the spirit of Saint Augustine, and strengthen them in your service so that the work you have begun in them may be brought to fulfillment.

We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.
