OUR ACKNOWLEDGMENT

With gratitude, we acknowledge the Traditional Custodians of this land and honour their enduring connection to Country. We pay our respects to Elders past and present, and to all First Nations people among us.

A SAFE AND CARING PARISH

We strive to make our parish a place where everyone feels safe, valued, and respected. Safeguarding is a shared responsibility, and we thank our community for helping us uphold this commitment.

If a word from Scripture settles in your heart or invites you to pause, we welcome you to share that grace. Your reflection becomes a gift that strengthens and uplifts our community. To offer a contribution for this space, please contact the Parish Office.

VOICE FROM THE PEWS

Where Scripture meets real life

Valerie Buono

Today we celebrate our Mothers. Being a Mum is a vocation filled with JOY and sorrow. We are Teacher, Chef, Cleaner, Nurse, Financial Controller, Peacemaker, Psychiatrist and Taxi driver. The hours are 24/7. The pay is definitely not measured in dollars. A mum's love is unconditional: The little poem goes: "I'll love you forever, like you for always, as long as you live, my baby you'll be."

One of the things my Mum said was that God gives us the right children for us. He knows what we can give and teach and he gives us the right children who will, in turn, teach us the lessons we need to learn. Children teach us about what we are capable of and give us the opportunity for our own ongoing growth: to be our very best.

We have this amazing example of Mary as Mother to Jesus. Mary's story begins with her "fiat" or yes to the Angel when she agrees to be Mother to Jesus. I feel that she had no idea what she agreed to. So too, God calls us and draws us to Him, He wants all of us to fulfill our earthly mission and to be in relationship with Him. The most incredible relationships unfold when I say yes.

Mary experiences all the joys of motherhood and all the sorrows. As she STOOD at the foot of the Cross, Jesus entrusted Mary to John and to us, as our Mother, always. When stuff happens, I seek the wisdom of my Mum and the wisdom of Mary. Whenever we pray HAIL MARY, she comes to us to walk beside us.

In today's Gospel, Jesus calls us to keep His commandments, we are called to remain in this divine love with Jesus and God. This is a sacred invitation to receive the Holy Spirit as companion on our earthly journey. Let us each say yes.

Today, take a moment to thank God for the blessing of Mary, for your Mother and the wise women who have guided you. If you can, reach out to your Mother and say thank you.

AUGUSTINIAN VOCATION PRAYER

Let us pray to the Lord of the harvest who calls men and women to serve Him in love.

That they may know their vocation and live it.

All glory and praise are yours, God of truth and light of our hearts, for you guide your people in the ways of holiness.

Help those who follow in the footsteps of Augustine to seek you through mutual love and worship and to be servants of your Church as examples that others may follow.

Enlighten men and women to see the beauty of common life in the spirit of Saint Augustine, and strengthen them in your service so that the work you have begun in them may be brought to fulfillment.

We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.
