With gratitude, we acknowledge the Traditional Custodians of this land and honour their enduring connection to Country. We pay our respects to Elders past and present, and to all First Nations people among us.

A SAFE AND CARING PARISH

We strive to make our parish a place where everyone feels safe, valued, and respected. Safeguarding is a shared responsibility, and we thank our community for helping us uphold this commitment.

If a word from Scripture settles in your heart or invites you to pause, we welcome you to share that grace. Your reflection becomes a gift that strengthens and uplifts our community. To offer a contribution for this space, scan QR code or e-mail office@nhparish.org.au

VOICE FROM THE PEWS

Where Scripture meets real life

Valerie Buono

Mary Magdalene: there is little information recorded about her. Research by Schrader and Taylor show the suffix Magdala is not a reference to a geographical place; rather it is an honorific meaning “tower” or “magnified one. For me, she is a tower of faith and hope and, in times of trouble, I turn to her.

Let us look again at John 20. We see Mary Magdalene weeping at the tomb: she laments and for John she is the container of all the sorrow and mourning and pain and suffering. She comes while it is still dark and she was there as the sun was rising. Recall when God created Light as separate from darkness, morning comes. During this chapter, Mary moves from suffering to believing in the Risen Lord and we move with her.

Secondly, Jesus’ tomb is in a garden and Mary Magdalene, not initially recognising Jesus, assumes He is the Gardener. Remember how God planted the Garden in Eden (Gen 2:8) and walked in the Garden. John’s Gospel shows Mary as witness at the beginning of this new Creation with Jesus promising new life and transformation.

Thirdly, after her conversation with two angels, Mary turns.. this word refers also to a transition. Then Jesus calls her name, Mary, and she turns to Him, here is her spiritual conversion of heart as she cries “Rabboni”, my teacher . I wonder what that feels like to have Jesus call you by name?

Mary Magdalene is entrusted with the news of Jesus' resurrection and Jesus commissions her to proclaim to “my brothers and sisters” the news of His resurrection. Mary receives the commission in faith and immediately obeys it. The early Church accorded her the title “Apostle of the Apostles,” in recognition of the apostolic role she plays in the community of disciples.

Mary Magdalene is an icon of transition to a new Creation: moving through liminal spaces, letting go of some ways, towards a new Creation, new light in our time and place, living in the power of the Spirit. There is much work to do.

Today we and our faith communities, together, need disciples like Mary Magdalene, who adore and love God and who will go out to the ends of the earth, whether or not they are believed, to be mission to those around them. I invite you to be a tower of faith and hope and share the love of God in our thoughts, words and deeds.

And today, as we approach Jesus in the Eucharist, listen and hear Jesus call you by name. St Mary Magdalene – pray for us.

PRAYER FOR GRANDPARENTS

IN HONOUR OF SAINTS JOACHIM AND ANNE

Lord Jesus, you were born of the Virgin Mary, the daughter of Saints Joachim and Anne. Look with love on grandparents the world over. Protect them! They are a source of enrichment for families, for the Church and for all society. Support them! As they grow older, may they continue to be for their families strong pillars of Gospel faith, guardians of noble domestic ideals, living treasures of sound religious traditions. Make them teachers of wisdom and courage, that they may pass on to future generations the fruits of their mature human and spiritual experience. Lord Jesus, help families and society to value the presence and role of grandparents. May they never be ignored or excluded but always encounter respect and love. Help them to live serenely and to feel welcomed in all the years of life which you give them. Mary, Mother of all the living, keep grandparents constantly in your care, accompany them on their earthly pilgrimage, and by your prayers, grant that all families may one day be reunited in our heavenly homeland, where you await all humanity for the great embrace of life without end.

Amen!
